

Dialogue Tree Level 3

Level 3.1: Breakfast

Spot wakes up and walks over to the kitchen to find the family having breakfast. [p]

It seems like a normal breakfast: James is at the head of the table drinking coffee. Leah is cooking bacon on the stove. Chris and Ben are sitting at the end of the table eating cereal. [p]

Yet things seem different too. Ben isn't squirming at the table like normal. Chris is barely touching her food. James is solemnly staring at Leah, who is the most different of the family. [p] She's wearing a scarf over her head. She's wheezing a bit and coughs every once and awhile. She looks exhausted. [p]

The atmosphere seems down. Spot doesn't know what's wrong but he wants to help. Who does he want to greet? [p]

- James
- Leah
- Chris and Ben

Player clicks on James

Spot runs up to James and stares up at him expectantly. He smiles slightly at Spot and says something to Spot. Spot understand the words 'get' and 'paper.' [p]

What would Spot like to do? [p]

- Newspaper
- Leash
- Hat
- Jacket

James: Player clicks on the Newspaper

Spot trots over to the front door and picks up the newspaper. He brings it over to James, who grabs it. [p]

He smiles at Spot, says 'Thanks', and rubs Spot on the head, who wags his tail in satisfaction, then walks over to the living room to chew on the stick. [p]

James starts to read the paper, looking up every so often to check on Leah. [p]

James: Player clicks on the Leash

Spot trots over to the hat rack by the front door. [p]

He looks at all of the objects hanging off the rack,

then pulls down the leash because he wants to go on a walk. [p]

He brings it over to James, who grabs it. [p]

He sighs and says 'Not right now.' He gets up to put away the leash. [p]

Spot whimpers in disappointment, then walks over to the living room to chew on the stick. [p]

James: Player clicks on the Hat

Spot trots over to the hat rack by the front door. He looks at all of the objects hanging off the rack, then jumps up and pulls down the hat because he thinks James's head looks cold. [p]

He brings it over to James, who grabs it. [p]

He frowns a little, says 'No,' and gets up to put away the hat. Spot whimpers in disappointment, then walks over to the living room to chew on the stick. [p]

James: Player clicks on the Jacket

Spot trots over to the hat rack by the front door. He looks at all of the objects hanging off the rack, then jumps up and pulls down the jacket because he thinks James looks cold. [p]

He brings it over to James, who grabs it. [p]

He sighs and stands up to put away the jacket, but then he stops. He turns to Spot and says, "Thanks." He walks over to Leah and drapes it around her shoulders. [p]

She seems thankful for the warmth and attention. Spot wags his tail with satisfaction, then walks over to the living room to chew on the stick. [p]

Player clicks on Leah

Spot runs up to Leah, hoping to get one of the pieces of bacon. [p]

Leah looks down at Spot, pats his head, and says, 'Sit.' [p]

What would Spot like to do? [p]

- Sit
- Fetch Toy
- Shake
- Lie Down
- Speak

Leah: Player clicks on Sit

Spot sits down. Leah smiles, says, 'Good Boy!' She tosses Spot a piece of bacon. [p]

Spot catches the bacon and wags his tail. Spot then walks over to the living room to chew on a stick. [p]

Leah: Player clicks on Fetch Toy

Spot starts running towards the living room to find a toy.

He grabs the first thing he can find, which is a stick. [p]

He brings the toy over to Leah and places it at her feet. [p]

Leah shakes her head and speaks to Chris. [p]

Chris comes over and pats Spot on the head. She picks up the stick and takes it back to the living room. [p]

Spot realizes that he is not getting a piece of bacon and walks over to the living room to chew on the stick. [p]

Leah: Player clicks on Shake

Spot holds out one of his paws.

Leah looks at Spot and shakes her head. She goes back to making bacon. [p]

Spot realizes that he is not getting a piece of bacon and walks over to the living room to chew on a stick. [p]

Leah: Player clicks on Lie Down

Spot lies down on the ground. [p]

Leah looks at Spot and shakes her head. She goes back to making bacon. [p]

Spot realizes that he is not getting a piece and walks over to the living room to chew on a stick. [p]

Leah: Player clicks on Speak

Spot barks loudly. [p]

Leah is taken back with surprise and starts coughing. James comes over to make sure she's ok and says 'Bad Dog.' [p]

Spot puts his tail between his legs and whimpers, then walks over to the living room to chew on a stick. [p]

Player clicks on Chris and Ben

Spot runs over to Chris and Ben. Normally Chris would tell Spot to get a toy but seems to be lost in her thoughts. Ben is sitting quietly in his seat. [p]

Spot wants to bring them out of their funk by getting a toy. Maybe that will cheer them up. What will Spot get? [p]

- Tennis Ball
- Stick
- Rope
- Backpack

Chris and Ben: Player clicks on the Tennis Ball

Spot runs to the living room and grabs a tennis ball that is laying on the floor.

Spot runs back to Chris, who grabs the tennis ball from his mouth. [p]

Chris smiles and gets Ben's attention. They get up from the table and take turns tossing the ball for Spot to retrieve. [p]

Once they finish playing, Spot walks over to the living room to chew on a stick. [p]

Chris and Ben: Player clicks on the Stick

Spot runs to the living room and grabs a stick that is laying on the floor.

Spot runs back to Chris, who grabs the stick from his mouth. [p]

Chris smiles and gets Ben's attention. They get up from the table and take turns tossing the stick for Spot to retrieve. [p]

Once they finish playing, Spot takes the stick over to the living room to chew on it in peace. [p]

Chris and Ben: Player clicks on the Rope

Spot runs to the living room and grabs a piece of rope that is laying on the floor. [p]

Spot runs back to Chris, who tries to pull the rope from his mouth. Spot refuses to let go. Chris smiles and starts playing tug-of-war with him. [p]

Ben notices them playing and gets up from the table and comes over to Chris and Spot. He cheers both of them on as they continue to tug on the rope. [p]

Once they finish playing, Spot walks over to the living room to chew on a stick. [p]

Chris and Ben: Player clicks on the Backpack

Spot runs over to the front door and grabs a backpack lying on the ground. It's too heavy for him to pick up, so he drags it over to the table. [p]

When Spot finally gets back to Chris with the bag, its contents spill out over the floor. [p]

Chris groans and says 'Bad Dog!'

Chris starts cleaning up her bag while Spot walks off with his tail between his legs. He walks over to the living room to chew on a stick. [p]

Level 3.2: After Work/School

The family leaves the house to go to work and school. Usually they will all come by the living room and say bye to Spot before they leave, but today they didn't. [p]

Spot is surprised and sad about this, and sits by the door all day, waiting for them to come back. [p]

A few hours later they file in. Spot greets all of them and while they are happy to see him, they are definitely not as excited as usual. [p]

If Spot wasn't sure this morning that something is wrong, he is sure now. If only he knew what happened, he's sure he could fix it. [p]

In the meantime, he decides to try to lift the spirits of someone, but who should that be? [p]

- James
- Leah
- Chris
- Ben

Player Clicks on James

Spot walks upstairs to James and Leah's room. James is sitting at his desk holding a picture of him and Leah in one hand. In the other hand he has an open bottle of scotch. [p]

Spot walks over to James and nudges him with his head. James puts down the photo, pats Spot's head, and then takes a swig from the bottle. [p]

Spot wants to play with James but isn't sure if he should bother him. What should he do? [p]

- Play with James
- Nap

James: Player clicks on Play with James

Spot grabs a tennis ball from nearby and brings it to James. James puts down the bottle and grabs the ball from Spot. [p]

He stands up and wobbles a bit, then tries to throw the ball for Spot. The ball falls straight to the ground. [p]

James laughs and tries again, but the ball still doesn't go far. [p]

Spot is disappointed, but James seems to be having a good time. James and Spot walk downstairs to the kitchen and wait for dinner. James left the bottle upstairs at his desk. [p]

James: Player clicks on Nap

Spot decides not to bother his master. Spot lays down at his feet and goes to sleep, enjoying James's company. [p]

James continues to drink from the bottle, and a single tear rolls down his cheek. [p]

Player Clicks on Leah

Spot walks into the living room. Leah is lying on the couch watching tv. [p]

The ceiling fan is on and Leah is shivering. Spot wants to help warm her up, but isn't sure what he should bring her. [p]

What should Spot get? [p]

- A blanket
- Leah's head scarf

Leah: Player clicks on the Blanket

Spot pulls a blanket off a nearby chair and carries it over to Leah. [p]

Leah grabs it gratefully and drapes it over herself. Spot lays down in front of her. She pets him as she continues to watch tv. [p]

Leah: Player clicks on the Scarf

Spot walks up to Leah and pulls the scarf off her head, exposing her shaved head. [p]

Spot is surprised by this change in appearance and drops the scarf on the ground. [p]

Leah quickly grabs the scarf off the ground and puts it back on her head. She starts crying. [p]

Spot feels horrible that he made her cry and sulks away. [p]

Player clicks on Chris

Spot walks downstairs to Chris's bedroom. Chris is sitting on her bed, crying on her friend Meg's shoulder. [p]

Spot wants to make Chris feel better, but isn't sure if he should interrupt. What should Spot do?

[p]

- Comfort Chris
- Leave and let Meg comfort Chris

Chris: Player clicks on Comfort Chris

Spot jumps up on the bed, forcing himself between Chris and Meg. [p]

Chris yells, "What are you doing!?" and shoves him off the bed. She starts crying even harder.

[p]

Meg walks Spot out of the room and closes the door behind her. [p]

Chris: Player clicks on Leave

Spot decides to leave the two of them alone. Meg seems to have everything handled. [p]

As Spot turns to walk back upstairs, he sees Meg dry Chris's eyes and kiss her. This seems to cheer up Chris, and Spot knows made the right choice. [p]

Player clicks on Ben

Spot walks out to the backyard and finds Ben kicking a ball around. [p]

Spot sprints over to the ball and picks it up. What should he do now? [p]

- Bring the ball to Ben
- Run away from Ben

Ben: Bring the ball to Ben

Spot trots over to Ben and drops the ball at his feet. Ben smiles and kicks the ball across the yard. [p]

The two of them play fetch until they are called in for dinner by James. [p]

Ben: Run away from Ben

Spot takes the ball and runs to the other side of the lawn. Ben laughs and starts chasing him. [p]

The two play keep away with each other until they are called in for dinner by James. [p]

Level 3.3: After Dinner

The family eats takeout together in the kitchen. The mood is sullen and not much conversation is had. [p]

After dinner, everyone goes back to where they were earlier. Spot wants to spend time with someone and try to cheer them up, but who will it be? [p]

- James
- Leah
- Chris
- Ben

Player Clicks on James

Spot walks upstairs to James and Leah's room. James is sitting at his desk holding a picture of him and Leah in one hand. In the other hand he has an open bottle of scotch. [p]

Spot walks over to James and nudges him with his head. James puts down the photo, pats Spot's head, and then takes a swig from the bottle. [p]

Spot wants to play with James but isn't sure if he should bother him. What should he do? [p]

- Play with James
- Sleep at his feet

James: Player clicks on Play with James

Spot grabs a tennis ball from nearby and brings it to James. James puts down the bottle and grabs the ball from Spot. [p]

He stands up and wobbles a bit, then tries to throw the ball for Spot. The ball falls straight to the ground. [p]

James laughs and tries again, but the ball still doesn't go far. [p]

Spot is disappointed, but James seems to be having a good time. [p]

They continue playing for the rest of the evening. James does not drink from the bottle the whole time. [p]

James: Player clicks on Sleep at his Feet

Spot decides not to bother his master. Spot lays down at his feet and goes to sleep, enjoying James's company. [p]

James goes back to staring at the photograph. He continues to drink from the bottle, and a single tear rolls down his cheek. [p]

Player Clicks on Leah

Spot walks into the living room. Leah is lying on the couch watching tv. [p]

The ceiling fan is on and Leah is shivering. Spot wants to help warm her up, but isn't sure what he should bring her. [p]

What should Spot get? [p]

- A blanket
- Leah's head scarf

Leah: Player clicks on the Blanket

Spot pulls a blanket off a nearby chair and carries it over to Leah. [p]

Leah grabs it gratefully and drapes it over herself. Spot lays down in front of her and she pets him as she continues to watch tv. [p]

Leah: Player clicks on the Scarf

Spot walks up to Leah and pulls the scarf off her head, exposing her shaved head. [p]

Spot is surprised by this change in appearance and drops the scarf on the ground. [p]

Leah quickly grabs the scarf off the ground and puts it back on her head, crying. [p]

Spot feels horrible that he made her cry and sulks away. [p]

- Behind the scenes: Spot and Leah's happiness decrease 2 units

Player clicks on Chris

Spot walks downstairs to Chris's bedroom. Chris is sitting on her bed, crying on her friend Meg's shoulder. [p]

Spot wants to make Chris feel better, but isn't sure if he should interrupt. What should Spot do? [p]

- Comfort Chris
- Leave and let Meg comfort Chris

Chris: Player clicks on Comfort Chris

Spot jumps up on the bed, forcing himself between Chris and Meg. [p]

Chris yells, “What are you doing!?” and shoves him off the bed. She starts crying even harder. [p]

Meg walks Spot out of the room and closes the door behind her. [p]

Chris: Player clicks on Leave

Spot decides to leave the two of them alone. Meg seems to have everything handled. [p]

As Spot turns to walk back upstairs, he sees Meg dry Chris’s eyes and kiss her. This seems to cheer up Chris, and Spot knows made the right choice. [p]

Player clicks on Ben

Spot walks out to the backyard and finds Ben kicking a ball around. [p]

Spot sprints over to the ball and picks it up. What should he do now? [p]

- Bring the ball to Ben
- Run away from Ben

Ben: Bring the ball to Ben

Spot trots over to Ben and drops the ball at his feet. Ben smiles and kicks the ball across the yard. [p]

The two of them play fetch until they are called in by James for bed. [p]

Ben: Run away from Ben

Spot takes the ball and runs to the other side of the lawn. Ben laughs and starts chasing him. [p]

The two play keep away with each other until they are called in by James for bed. [p]